MASTERS IN CLINICAL RADIOLOGY SESSION -4
FOR ACADEMIC YEAR: 2023-2024

NOTIFICATION OF 'MASTERS IN CLINICAL RADIOLOGY' (MICR EXAM)

No. ICRI23-24/MICR4

Date: 11.09.2023

Dear Esteemed Members,

Greetings from ICRI!

The Indian College of Radiology and Imaging is pleased to announce the 4th session of Masters in clinical Radiology' (MICR EXAM) starting from 15th October 2023 in India at Delhi, Chennai & Mumbai centres.

The aim of introducing MICR exam is to establish a uniform and a high standard of Radiology examination of International quality.

The coveted degree of MICR stands for "Masters in Clinical Radiology", and has three steps (Step 1 comprising of Radiological Anatomy and Physics ,Step-2 the CORE exam (Clinically Oriented Reasoning and Evaluation) comprising of theory questions with Single Best Answers (SBA) and image Based questions and finally Step-3 which from this session would have three components comprising of a Reporting Session having ten long cases (each case comprising of multiple imaging modalities) a second component of Essential Radiology (comprising of 50 radiographs and other imaging modalities from Accident and Emergency Radiology) and a final component of Grand Viva including an Ultrasound & Interventional OSCE and all subspecialty viva. MICR is conferred to candidates who successfully clear all three steps of the examination.

The response to the MICR examination has been very encouraging so far and the Indian College of Radiology and Imaging is striving hard to reach the maximum number of post graduates and trainees to take this examination. This examination clearly prepares the candidate to take any International examination like FRCR, and EDiR with a far higher level of confidence.

With this current notification application are hereby invited for the MICR Step-I exam. Please refer to the IRIA Website (<https://icri.iria.org.in/>) for applications, prospectus, curriculum, and syllabus and exam pattern. The exam date shall be October 15, 2023 (Sunday). The College shall shortly release the examination calendar for the year 2024.
